HyperMotion Technology makes the FIFA World Cup extra authentic and provides a more satisfying gameplay experience when navigating the various FIFA World Cup stadiums. The motion capture data captures the player's movements on the pitch for multiple key game actions: sprints, tackles, goalkeeping, dribbling and shooting. This data is matched with camera data to accurately recreate game actions. The result is more realistic and lively FIFA gameplay, including more physically impressive collisions, more realistic ball movement, improved ball physics and more realistic player movement and animation. A new "Evolution Engine" will be at the heart of FIFA 22. This next generation CPU is 40 percent faster than in FIFA 21. This means that the details on the pitch are brought to life in ways never before seen on consoles. The game engine now features a more realistic ground reaction force model, which affects player movement and in-play decision-making. This allows for more believable AI decisions, like gaining possession or shooting the ball during a move, such as dribbling or passing. FIFA 22 also features custom animation driven by AI, with over 300 new animations across all player types, as well as new animations for all referee positions at the FIFA World Cup. This means more authentic and realistic animations, along with new animations for celebrations, goals, saves and even official decisions. FIFA World Cup mode FIFA World Cup features many improvements to "FIFA World Cup 360." The most noticeable include: A new fully customizable game mode that can be personalized to your own personal game style. You can choose to control each game in real time as if you were playing with professional football players, or you can play in custom format with custom teams and settings. You can play the game in traditional 3v3, 4v4, 5v5 or Custom format games. All online matches can be controlled by yourself or with up to three friends through Xbox Live. A new "Hot Spot" system that allows you to choose your favorite playmaker and create your own custom game. Choose from one of four playmakers, including Drogba, Messi, Suarez or Ronaldo, and customize your team with 12 global and local player transfers, 6 clubs, 3 transfer windows and up to 8 teams. Huge increases to the number of FIFA World Cup stadiums featured and
